

Shoalhaven First Nations Film Festival

Shoalhaven First Nations Film Festival presents films by Canadian First Nations filmmakers to celebrate International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples, 9 August.

- A showcase of short films highlighting the Anishinaabe People of the Great Lakes Region, curated by accomplished filmmakers Candace Scott-Moore and Richard Scott-Moore who link Canada's Anishinaabe People with the Yuin Nation centred on the Shoalhaven
- Uncle Gerry Moore, OAM, and Yuin Elder, will offer a very special Welcome to Country and introduction to films that reflect the deep connection to land and water shared by Canadian and Australian Indigenous Peoples on a day that celebrates all Indigenous Peoples
- The films will be screened at 2pm on Saturday 9 August at Huskisson Pictures, followed by afternoon tea and an opportunity to discuss the films
- Tickets, $15 adults, $40 family (two adults, two children), are available via Trybooking: <https://www.trybooking.com/DDMBI>
- Mob tix available: email sfnff2025@gmail.com
